Letter from Stuart M. Brightman

One of CSI Compressco LP's most valuable assets is our reputation for integrity, professionalism, and ethical conduct. To protect and enhance this reputation, the Board of Directors and senior management team of CSI Compressco LP's general partner, CSI Compressco GP Inc. (the "General Partner"), is committed to fostering a culture of honesty, loyalty, fairness, and accountability within the Company. As part of this effort, the General Partner has adopted an updated CSI Compressco LP Code of Business Conduct.

Every company faces a great many challenges in today's complex global business environment. By clearly outlining the key principles, standards, and legal requirements that must guide our conduct, this Code of Business Conduct is designed to serve as a valuable resource to assist you in making the right choices and decisions in the performance of your jobs and to provide information about where to find more detailed information about CSI Compressco's policies and procedures related to particular topics. Please read it carefully and refer back to it as often as needed.

You have a responsibility to read, understand, and strictly adhere to both the language and the spirit of this Code of Business Conduct. It is imperative that each of us seek to avoid even the appearance of improper behavior. Furthermore, the Company's commitment to the highest level of ethical conduct should be reflected in all of the Company's business activities including, but not limited to, relationships with employees, customers, suppliers, competitors, the government, and the public, including CSI Compressco LP's unitholders.

If you have questions regarding this Code of Business Conduct, please ask for guidance. If you believe that a violation of this Code of Business Conduct has (or might have) occurred, report it using the channels identified herein.

Thank you for your continued hard work and your personal commitment to doing your job properly and in line with the ethical standards, practices, and procedures outlined in this Code of Business Conduct.

Sincerely,

Stuart M. Brightman
Chairman of the Board, CSI Compressco GP Inc.

About this Code of Business Conduct

HONESTY, LOYALTY, FAIRNESS, AND ACCOUNTABILITY

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of CSI Compressco GP Inc. (the “General Partner” or the “Company”), the general partner of CSI Compressco LP (the “Partnership” and, together with its subsidiaries and the General Partner, the “Partnership Group”), has adopted this Code of Business Conduct (this “Code”). This Code summarizes the high standards of ethical and legal behavior that must guide the actions of all members of the Board, all officers of the General Partner, and all employees, in-house contractors (i.e., contractors that perform the majority of their services in the Partnership Group’s offices or facilities), temporary agency personnel, and secondees in all business units acting on behalf of the Partnership Group in all of the Partnership Group’s offices (collectively, “Partnership Group Personnel;” individually, “you”).

While this Code covers a wide range of business practices and procedures, these standards cannot and do not cover every issue that may arise or every situation in which ethical decisions must be made. Instead, this Code sets forth key guiding principles that represent Partnership Group policies and establishes conditions for association with the Partnership Group.

The omission of a specific act from this Code does not mean that it is acceptable or lawful. You must each use good judgment, be responsible, and seek guidance on proper business conduct when this Code does not address the specific circumstances that you may encounter. Ultimately, you must determine the right thing to do to maintain our personal and corporate integrity and you will be held accountable for the decisions you make.

THIS CODE MAKES REFERENCE TO CERTAIN POLICIES THAT HAVE BEEN ADOPTED BY THE PARTNERSHIP GROUP AND/OR THE PARENT COMPANY OF THE GENERAL PARTNER, TETRA TECHNOLOGIES, INC. (“TETRA”). THE TETRA POLICIES REFERENCED HEREIN ARE EQUALLY APPLICABLE TO THE GENERAL PARTNER AS A SUBSIDIARY OF TETRA AND, THEREFORE, ALSO APPLICABLE TO THE PARTNERSHIP GROUP.

TETRA’s General Counsel, Chief Compliance Officer, Director of Internal Audit each also serve as the General Counsel, Chief Compliance Officer, and Director of Internal Audit of the General Partner.

Applicability of this Code

For the purposes of this Code, the “Partnership Group” shall include CSI Compressco GP Inc., CSI Compressco LP, its subsidiaries, its branches and the branches of its subsidiaries, its ventures, and any unconsolidated subsidiaries (which we may refer to as the “Partnership Group,” “we,” or “us,”), including all business units in all of the Partnership Group’s offices and locations around the world. All members of the Board, all officers of the General Partner, and all employees, in-house contractors, temporary agency personnel, and secondees in all business units acting on behalf of the Partnership Group are expected to be familiar with this Code and to apply it in the daily performance of their work-related responsibilities. We also expect all agents, consultants, suppliers, contractors, vendors, service providers and others acting in any capacity on behalf of the Partnership Group to abide by the principles in this Code.

Observance of this Code of Business Conduct

ETHICAL BUSINESS CONDUCT IS EVERYONE'S RESPONSIBILITY

All Partnership Group Personnel are expected to:

Understand.* The Partnership Group expects you to understand the requirements of your position, including the Partnership Group's expectations and all laws, rules, and regulations that apply to your position.

You must read and understand the standards contained in this Code and participate in training as required by the Partnership Group and/or TETRA, as the parent company of the General Partner. You should also be aware of the specific legal and regulatory requirements of the country and region where you work and that affect your business.

Comply.* The Partnership Group expects you to comply with this Code and all applicable laws, rules, and regulations.

You are personally responsible for behaving in a highly ethical manner as you conduct the Partnership Group's business and for abiding by (i) this Code; (ii) all other applicable Partnership Group policies and procedures; and (iii) all laws, rules, and regulations that apply to the Partnership Group's operations. Ethical behavior and compliance with the law are conditions of employment. You shall not commit an illegal or unethical act, or instruct others to do so, for any reason.

Report.* The Partnership Group expects you to report any violation or potential violation of this Code or any applicable law, rule, or regulation of which you become aware.

You must be alert to, and promptly raise, any concerns or report any violations of this Code or any applicable law, rule, or regulation in accordance with the Partnership Group's procedure for reporting violations, as described in this Code. We expect you to cooperate fully and honestly as requested in any investigation by the Partnership Group and/or TETRA of alleged illegal or unethical activity.

Be Accountable.* The Partnership Group holds you accountable for complying with this Code.

You must not only personally comply with this Code; you must also encourage others to comply with this Code and not knowingly help another person to conduct business in a manner that violates this Code. Those who violate this Code—or who knowingly permit another to violate this Code without reporting it according to the Partnership Group's policies—are subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

If you have any questions regarding this Code or any applicable law, rule, or regulation, please contact the General Partner's Chief Compliance Officer or General Counsel.

Higher Expectations for Supervisors

While this Code applies to all Partnership Group Personnel, those persons that serve in a supervisory capacity and have other employees reporting to them (collectively, "Supervisors") have additional responsibilities related to this Code. Supervisors are responsible for promoting a culture of compliance and integrity. As leaders within the, Supervisors must:

- lead by example by complying with this Code at all times;
- enforce this Code consistently;
- help those you supervise to understand and follow the standards set forth in this Code and other Partnership Group policies and procedures;

- stress the importance of participating in required training programs and executing required certifications;
- monitor the compliance and ethics of the people you supervise;
- use reasonable care to monitor third parties acting on behalf of the Partnership Group to ensure that they work in a manner consistent with this Code;
- support those who, in good faith, raise concerns or questions, even if they go outside the chain of command to do so;
- never take or allow retaliatory action against someone for reporting concerns in good faith; and
- deal with and report potential ethical or legal misconduct, whether you witness it yourself or receive a report about it.

Acknowledgment Statement

You are each required to complete and sign an acknowledgment statement affirming that you have read, understand, and will comply with this Code. You will also each be required to reaffirm your understanding of, and compliance with, this Code on a periodic basis by signing subsequent acknowledgment statements. Except where expressly prohibited by law, completing and returning a signed acknowledgment statement when requested by the Partnership Group or TETRA is a condition of your employment.

Our Obligations to the Partnership Group and the Partnership’s Unitholders

Protection of the Partnership Group’s Assets

USE THE PARTNERSHIP GROUP’S ASSETS FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE PARTNERSHIP GROUP

PROTECT THE PARTNERSHIP GROUP’S ASSETS

You are a steward of the Partnership Group’s assets. As such, you have the obligation to (i) use and maintain these assets with the utmost care and respect to conduct the Partnership Group’s business; (ii) protect and preserve the Partnership Group’s assets and resources against loss, theft, waste, abuse, or other misuse; and (iii) assist the Partnership Group in its efforts to control costs. The Partnership Group’s assets include, but are not limited to, such things as electronic mail, computer systems, documents, equipment, facilities, information, logo and name, materials, and supplies.

Personal use of the Partnership Group’s assets on an occasional and limited basis may be acceptable, provided there are no measurable increased costs to the Partnership Group. The use of the Partnership Group’s assets and resources for personal financial gain, however, is strictly prohibited.

You should promptly report any suspected loss, theft, waste, abuse, or other misuse of the Partnership Group’s assets to an immediate supervisor, the General Partner’s Chief Compliance Officer, and/or the General Partner’s General Counsel.

Confidential Proprietary Information

DO NOT USE THE PARTNERSHIP GROUP'S CONFIDENTIAL PROPRIETARY INFORMATION FOR YOUR OWN PERSONAL USE OR TO BENEFIT ANYONE OTHER THAN THE PARTNERSHIP GROUP

Confidential proprietary information generated and/or gathered in our business is a valuable asset of the Partnership Group. Protecting this information plays a vital role in our continued growth and ability to compete, and all confidential proprietary information should be maintained in strict confidence, except when disclosure is specifically authorized by the Company in advance and in writing or required by law. Unauthorized use or distribution of confidential proprietary information violates the Partnership Group's policy and may be illegal.

Confidential proprietary information includes all non-public information that may be useful to competitors or that could be harmful to the Partnership Group, its customers, or its suppliers if disclosed. Confidential proprietary information includes, but is not limited to, historical or projected future financial information or results of operation, details of contracts with customers or suppliers, information regarding the existence or terms of any potential dispositions or acquisitions by the Partnership Group, Partnership Group Personnel information (including employee medical information and information relating to any and all aspects of employee compensation), intellectual property (such as trade secrets, patents, trademarks, and copyrights), ideas, discoveries, designs, inventions, technology, improvements, know-how, manufacturing and services, processes, design specifications, writings and other works of authorship, computer programs, accounting information, organizational structure, marketing plans, customer or supplier lists and data, pricing information, objectives, strategies, business plans or methods, and the like that relate in any manner to the actual or anticipated business of the Partnership Group.

Your obligation to protect the Partnership Group's confidential proprietary information continues even after you leave the Company, and you must return all proprietary information in your possession upon leaving the Company.

The Partnership Group also respects the property rights of other companies and requires Partnership Group Personnel to observe such rights. The Partnership Group strictly prohibits the use or disclosure of any confidential, proprietary, or trade secret information of others, even if such information comes to you or the Partnership Group through legitimate channels, a previous employer, competitor, or vendor, unless so authorized in writing by the owner of the information. You must not obtain information about the Partnership Group's competitors through unlawful or unethical means, such as theft, bribery, illegal entry, or electronic eavesdropping. You must also not use confidential proprietary information of the Partnership Group's suppliers, contractors, customers, or employees for personal use or to benefit a third party.

Trading on Inside Information

DO NOT USE MATERIAL NON-PUBLIC INFORMATION FOR PERSONAL GAIN

Public securities exchanges and federal and state laws establish strict guidelines for the use of material non-public information (also known as “inside information”) regarding the Partnership Group by Partnership Group Personnel. Information is considered to be “non-public” if it has not been previously disclosed to the general public and is not otherwise available to the general public. In general, non-public information is “material” if a reasonable investor would find it relevant in making a decision to buy, hold, or sell securities issued by the Partnership. Any information that could be expected to affect our unit price, whether it is positive or negative, should be considered to be material.

All material non-public information about the Partnership Group must be treated as confidential and should never be used for personal gain. You may not engage in any transaction involving securities issued by the Partnership unless you are sure that you possess no material non-public information regarding the Partnership Group.

If you are aware of material non-public information regarding the Partnership Group, you must abstain from trading in securities issued by the Partnership until that information is publicly disclosed and at least four (4) trading days have elapsed following the date of disclosure, in order to allow the public an opportunity to digest the information.

Furthermore, you shall not give advice or make recommendations regarding investments in the Partnership’s securities based on material nonpublic information. Under no circumstances may you (i) disclose material non-public information to any person other than to other Partnership Group employees, officers, or directors and/or agents with a “need to know” such information or (ii) advise others to trade in the Partnership’s securities for their benefit until the information is publicly released by the Partnership Group and the public has had an opportunity to digest it.

If, at the time you resign from, or are terminated by, the Company, you are aware of material non-public information regarding the Partnership Group, you may not trade in the Partnership’s securities until the information becomes public or is no longer material.

If you have obtained material non-public information relating to publicly held companies other than the Partnership (including, but not limited to, TETRA or a Partnership Group client, vendor, or competitor) in connection with your employment with the Partnership Group, you are prohibited from trading or advising others to trade in securities of such companies and from disclosing such material non-public information to any other person.

These requirements not only apply to you, but they also apply to (i) family members who reside with you, (ii) any person who lives in your household, and (iii) family members who do not reside with you but whose financial transactions are directed by you or are subject to your influence or control. You are responsible for the transactions of these other persons, and you should make them aware of their obligation to confer with you before they trade in the Partnership’s securities.

You are required to familiarize yourself with and comply with the Partnership’s Policy on Trading in Partnership Securities, which is available on the Compressco Intranet. Among other things, the Partnership’s Policy on Trading in Partnership Securities contains a list of other prohibited transactions and additional pre- clearance and blackout period requirements for directors and certain other officers and senior managers.

Questions regarding your ability to buy or sell Partnership securities or whether certain information is material inside information should be directed to the General Partner’s General Counsel.

Financial Integrity

MAINTAIN ACCURATE FINANCIAL RECORDS

Management, the Partnership's unitholders, creditors, government entities, and Partnership Group Personnel rely upon the accuracy of the Partnership Group's financial records. By demonstrating honesty in our accounting practices, we also generate trust with our customers, suppliers, and unitholders; avoid legal liabilities; and enhance our reputation. When we fail to record financial information accurately, we risk damaging our reputation, losing business, decreasing customer and unitholder confidence, breaching the law, and facing penalties. It is imperative, therefore, that the financial records and reports produced or derived from those records be maintained and presented in accordance with the laws and regulations in each applicable jurisdiction. Our financial records must also accurately and fairly reflect in reasonable detail the transactions, assets, liabilities, expenses, and revenues of the Partnership Group.

The responsibility for ensuring that false or intentionally misleading entries are not made in the Partnership Group's accounting records resides not only with accounting, finance, and audit personnel, but also with each of you. All Partnership Group records must be truthful and accurate. You are prohibited from directly or indirectly falsifying or causing to be false or misleading any financial or accounting book, record, or account. Maintaining secret or unrecorded Partnership Group funds or bank accounts is also strictly prohibited.

No intentional misclassification of transactions as to accounts, business units, or accounting periods is permitted and accurate documentation in reasonable detail must support all transactions, large or small. Thus, the preparation of expense reports and time sheets, the posting of sales and marketing data, and the recording of significant capital improvements or investments require the utmost degree of accuracy and transparency.

The consequences of altering, modifying, or destroying any relevant Partnership Group documents or records are severe and may include legal prosecution of responsible individuals as well as the Partnership Group. If you have any doubt about the legality or propriety of modifying or destroying any document or record, you should contact your supervisor; an attorney in TETRA's Legal Department or the Director of Internal Audit.

Corporate Opportunities

You owe a duty to the Partnership Group to advance its legitimate interests when the opportunity to do so arises. You are prohibited from (i) taking for yourself business opportunities that are discovered through the use of Partnership Group property, information, or position with the Partnership Group; (ii) using Partnership Group property, information, or position for personal gain; and (iii) competing with the Partnership Group. Competing with the Partnership Group may involve engaging in the same line of business as the Partnership Group or any situation where you take away from the Partnership Group opportunities for sales or purchases of products, services, or interests.

Conflicts of Interest

AVOID ACTIVITIES OR RELATIONSHIPS THAT COULD IMPROPERLY INFLUENCE, OR APPEAR TO IMPROPERLY INFLUENCE, BUSINESS DECISIONS

You have an obligation to act in the best interest of the Partnership Group. You must not engage in, or give the appearance of engaging in, any activity involving a conflict, or reasonably foreseeable conflict, between your personal interests and those of the Partnership Group.

A “conflict of interest” occurs when a person’s private interest interferes in any way, or even appears to interfere, with the Partnership Group’s interest. A conflict can arise when you or a member of your family receives improper personal benefits as a result of your position in the Partnership Group or when you take actions or have interests that may make it difficult to perform your work for the Partnership Group objectively and effectively.

The key to the successful resolution of any conflict of interest situation is prior disclosure. You are responsible for disclosing any existing or contemplated activity, interest, or relationship that could impair your objectivity, judgment, or effectiveness. Such disclosure must be made in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Partnership’s Conflicts of Interest Policy, which is available on the CSI Compressco Intranet.

You may undertake an activity that involves a potential or apparent conflict of interest only after you disclose the issue and receive approval in accordance with the Partnership’s Conflict of Interest Policy.

If you have doubts as to whether a particular set of circumstances constitutes an impermissible conflict of interest, you should immediately seek appropriate assistance from an attorney in TETRA’s Legal Department.

The Partnership Group may periodically ask you to submit a formal declaration with regard to possible conflicts of interest. Providing timely, candid responses in such declarations is a condition of continuing employment. All such declarations and other information reported by Partnership Group Personnel relating to conflict of interest shall be maintained by the Partnership Group on a confidential basis, unless otherwise required to be disclosed.

Political Contributions and Charitable Donations

As a private citizen, you are free to contribute to causes of your choice. The Partnership Group’s funds, assets, and other resources, however, may be given, contributed, loaned, or otherwise made available (directly or indirectly) to any (1) political party, officer of a political party, political campaign, candidate for political office, holder of political office (at any level of government), political action committee, or political official or (2) charitable causes or organizations only in compliance with the applicable laws and with the prior consent of the Chief Compliance Officer. Such transactions must also be duly noted in the Partnership Group’s books and records.

Our Obligations to Fellow Employees

Employment Practices

PROVIDE EQUAL OPPORTUNITY FOR ALL IN HIRING, ADVANCEMENT, AND RETENTION

MAINTAIN A WORKPLACE FREE OF DISCRIMINATION AND HARASSMENT

Employees constitute our most indispensable asset. The Partnership Group recognizes that the inherent value of its employees consists of their abilities, integrity, knowledge, and talent. In order to recruit and retain high-caliber employees that reflect these values, the Partnership Group's guiding principles are as follows:

- Provide all applicants and employees fair and equitable consideration and treatment in all matters related to employment, benefits, training, compensation, and other privileges and conditions of employment regardless of race, color, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, disability, veteran status, or any other basis that is protected under applicable law.
- Promote an environment in which an employee's individual performance of his or her job will be the determining factor for that employee's progress.
- Maintain a professional, safe, and discrimination-free work environment in which mutual respect is expected from everyone.

The Partnership Group also prohibits ethnic, racial, religious, sexual, or any other type of harassment, whether the harasser or the victim is a co-worker, supervisor, agent, customer, guest, or vendor. Inappropriate or unwelcome sexual behavior and other forms of behavior (whether physical or verbal in nature) that create an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment interfere with and obstruct workplace performance, violate Partnership Group policy, and may be against the law.

If you have experienced, witnessed, or otherwise become aware of incidents involving harassment in violation of Partnership Group policies, you must promptly report such incidents to your immediate supervisor, the next level supervisor, your Division Head, or any member of the Human Resources staff. If the matter you are reporting involves your immediate supervisor or any supervisor in a direct line of authority, you may report such matter to any company supervisor. The Partnership Group will promptly and thoroughly investigate each complaint and take corrective action, if appropriate.

For more information, see TETRA's Employee Rights and Responsibilities policy, which is available on the CSI Compressco Intranet.

Health, Safety, and Environment

AVOID HARM TO PEOPLE, AND RESPECT THE ENVIRONMENT

The Partnership Group is committed to providing a safe and healthy working environment for our employees and conducting its business in compliance with all applicable environmental and workplace health and safety laws and regulations. The Partnership Group maintains HSE programs applicable to its operations and requires that Partnership Group Personnel comply with these programs.

You must understand and adhere to (i) the Partnership Group's HSE policies and procedures; (ii) the laws, rules, and regulations of the areas in which we conduct our business; and (iii) the rules of our customers, when applicable. No job is so important or timetable so critical that the health and safety of Partnership Group Personnel, those who work beside the Partnership Group, or the environment should be put in jeopardy. No deviations from such policies, laws, and regulations are permitted without prior approval from the appropriate supervisory personnel and/or government regulatory agency.

You must take responsibility for achieving a workplace that is incident-free. This responsibility includes exercising good judgment and common sense while performing job duties. You also have the responsibility and authority to stop any work, job, or task where unsafe conditions, practices, or at-risk behavior are observed. This "Stop Work Authority" extends to all Partnership Group Personnel on all worksites and locations. No work will resume until all stop work issues and concerns have been adequately addressed. No form of retaliation, retribution, or intimidation directed at any individual for exercising the Stop Work Authority will be tolerated. When requested, you must also assist in investigating the causes of accidents and helping to develop preventive measures that could reduce the probability of a similar accident from occurring.

For more information, see the TETRA Health, Safety and Environmental Policy Statement and the Compressco HSE Management System, both of which are available on the CSI Compressco Intranet.

Drugs and Alcohol

PROMOTE A POSITIVE WORK ENVIRONMENT FREE FROM THE HARMFUL EFFECTS OF DRUGS OR ALCOHOL

The Partnership Group is committed to complying with drug and alcohol laws and regulations in the countries in which we operate; providing Partnership Group Personnel with a safe and productive work environment; and maintaining the confidence of the communities in which we work, our customers, unitholders, and vendors. To this end, the Partnership Group strictly prohibits the use, solicitation, possession, concealment, transportation, purchase, manufacture, promotion, or sale of (i) illicit/ illegal drugs or controlled substances; (ii) other mind or mood altering substances or inhalants; and (iii) equipment, paraphernalia, or material related to illegal drug or substance abuse by any person while on Partnership Group premises, engaged in Partnership Group business, or while operating Partnership Group vehicles or equipment. The Partnership Group also prohibits the misuse or illegal possession, concealment, transportation, purchase, promotion, or sale of over-the-counter or prescription drugs.

Similarly, the Partnership Group strictly prohibits the use, solicitation, possession, concealment, transportation, purchase, manufacture, promotion, or sale of intoxicating beverages in a Partnership Group facility or on Partnership Group premises except for occasions when use is specifically authorized by Company management. The use or consumption of alcohol and drugs off the job or off Partnership Group premises while driving a vehicle owned or rented by the Partnership Group may also be the subject of disciplinary action, if such use or consumption violates Partnership Group policies or otherwise endangers the health or safety of Partnership Group Personnel or the public.

For more information, see TETRA's policy on controlled substances, alcohol abuse, contraband, firearms, and weapons. See also TETRA's Health, Safety & Environmental Program Policy and the Partnership's Vehicle Policy. All of these policies are available on the CSI Compressco Intranet.

Our Obligations to Customers

Competition and Antitrust Laws

COMPETE AGGRESSIVELY BUT FAIRLY AND IN COMPLIANCE WITH ALL APPLICABLE U.S. AND FOREIGN COMPETITION AND ANTITRUST LAWS

The Partnership Group is committed to competing for all business opportunities in a fair and ethical manner and complying with both the letter and the spirit of the antitrust laws and the competition laws of the countries where we operate. Violations of U.S. and foreign competition and antitrust laws can subject the Partnership Group and Partnership Group Personnel to civil liability and/or criminal sanctions, including fines and jail time.

You are required to treat all customers and suppliers honestly, fairly, and objectively and to always present the Partnership Group's services and products in an honest and forthright manner. Furthermore, you may not enter into any understanding or agreement, whether formal or informal, written or oral, with an actual or potential competitor that would illegally restrict in any way either party's actions, including the offers of either party to any third party. This prohibition includes, but is not limited to, any such action relating to prices, products, services, terms or conditions of sale, market share, or customer or supplier selection.

Due to the complexity of antitrust laws it would be impossible to provide a detailed discussion of them in this Code. However, the following is a non-exhaustive list of examples of some of the practices that are prohibited by the Partnership Group:

- price fixing and bid rigging, which includes agreements with competitors on prices to charge customers or potential customers;
- the allocation of markets by competitors, whether geographically or otherwise;
- the fixing of production or production quotas by competitors;
- the fixing of resale prices or other terms and conditions of resale by competitors with customers, or fixing the terms and conditions of purchases, like price or quantity discounts, with competitors;
- the sharing of information by competitors about present and future pricing of commodities or services that they sell or intend to sell; and

- any agreement with a competitor or customer for the Partnership Group to refuse to deal with another customer. The Partnership Group has the right to unilaterally select the customers with whom it will do business. However, this right must be exercised alone without suggestion from competitors or other customers.

You should promptly inform your immediate supervisor or an attorney in TETRA's Legal Department should you (i) obtain any information about a competitor that is marked confidential or proprietary (other than pursuant to a written confidentiality agreement) or (ii) have or observe any potentially problematic discussion or interaction with a competitor that could be construed as anti-competitive.

Questions regarding any U.S. or foreign competition or antitrust laws or your responsibilities under these laws should be directed to your Division Head, an attorney in TETRA's Legal Department, or the Chief Compliance Officer.

Gifts, Meals, Travel, Entertainment, and Other Business Courtesies

BE CAUTIOUS WHEN EXCHANGING BUSINESS GIFTS AND OTHER BUSINESS COURTESIES, AND TAKE STEPS TO ENSURE THAT SUCH GIFTS OR BUSINESS COURTESIES ARE NOT SEEN AS BRIBES MEANT TO IMPROPERLY INFLUENCE BUSINESS DECISIONS OR ACTIONS

Traditionally, the giving and receiving of gifts and the offering and acceptance of meals, travel opportunities, entertainment, and other business courtesies (hereinafter "gifts and entertainment") to and from non-governmental business partners and customers strengthens business relationships and can help a company succeed in the marketplace. When done within established limits, these activities continue to be a lawful and appropriate business practice.

However, you are prohibited from offering, promising, giving, accepting, or giving permission for an immediate family member to accept gifts and entertainment that violates any law, regulation, contract or agreement, or accepted and customary business practice. You must also ensure that you offer, promise, give, or accept only gifts and entertainment that:

- are of a reasonable value,
- are within the bounds of good taste,
- are not given for the purpose of improperly influencing the business decisions or actions of the recipient,
- do not create the appearance of being an improper payment under the circumstances or place the recipient under any obligation, and
- are infrequent.

More restrictive rules apply to gifts and entertainment offered, promised, or provided to either (i) foreign (non-U.S.) government officials or employees (including officials or employees of any state-owned, -operated, or -controlled entity) or (ii) private persons or employees of an entity connected in any way with business potentially affecting the Partnership Group (including any actual or prospective customer) (hereinafter, "Covered Recipients"). You are expected to review, and comply with, TETRA's Anti-Corruption Policy and Manual, which are available on the CSI Compressco Intranet and provide specific, detailed guidance concerning meals, gifts, entertainment, and travel and lodging involving foreign government officials or employees and Covered Recipients.

Federal, state, and local government regulations on gifts and entertainment provided to U.S. government officials and employees are complex and vary among government agencies. Consult with the Chief Compliance Officer before offering, promising, or providing any gifts or entertainment to any U.S. government officials or employees of U.S. federal, state, or local government agencies.

You should not offer, promise, give, or accept gifts and entertainment in connection with any open tender or competitive bidding process.

You must also not accept certain types of gifts under any circumstances. These include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Securities, cash, or cash equivalents (e.g., gift cards, gift certificates, vouchers, stocks, and savings bonds) or items that can be readily converted to cash;
- loans or financing, except at prevailing commercial rates and terms with banks or other lending institutions;
- credit cards;
- transportation equipment (e.g., autos, trucks, boats, and motorcycles);
- establishment of credit on behalf of the employee, unless generally available to all Partnership Group employees;
- airline or other transportation tickets and/or individual charters, except for those which are directly related to either (i) the promotion, demonstration, or explanation of products or services, or (ii) the execution or performance of a contract with a customer
- or vendor;
- discounts on personal purchases, unless generally available to all Partnership Group employees;
- improvements or repairs to personal or real property, except at prevailing commercial rates and terms;
- sale or purchase of personal or real property, except at prevailing commercial rates and terms; and
- finder's fees or fees for the referral of business.

The limitations set forth above apply even in situations in which you use personal funds or assets (in whole or in part) to provide gifts and entertainment, and you do not seek reimbursement from the Partnership Group.

We expect our customers, suppliers, contractors, and others who do business with us or on our behalf to conduct their business in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations and to adhere to the same standards of fair and ethical business conduct to which we hold ourselves. We also expect Partnership Group Personnel to adhere to the codes of conduct of our suppliers, contractors, and customers when aware of those codes.

Communications

CONDUCT BUSINESS IN AN OPEN AND HONEST MANNER

In order to ensure that the information that is disseminated about the Partnership Group to the public is both accurate and consistent, the General Partner's President, or his or her designee(s), is/are the Partnership Group's spokesperson(s) for all communications with the public on the Partnership Group's behalf. No other person may provide information to the media; deliver any public or semi-public or oral address; or publish or cause to be published any paper, article, or other writing, any of which are related directly or indirectly to the Partnership Group or any business activity in which the Partnership Group is involved without first obtaining the prior written approval of his or her Division Head.

All Partnership Group communications, whether internal or external, should be honest and forthright. Communications may include, but are not limited to, general internal reports and memoranda, advertising, marketing, media broadcasts, sales brochures, and illustrations. The Partnership Group will provide accurate information when promoting its products and services. Misleading, false, or exaggerated claims concerning our products and services, or those of our competitors, are unacceptable. These same principles must be adhered to when responding to inquiries from customers, fellow employees, the media, regulatory agencies, and unitholders.

The publication or circulation, either internally or externally, of any oral or written statement that is false, derogatory, malicious, or defamatory of any other person, and in particular any of the Partnership Group's competitors, is prohibited.

For more information, see the Partnership's policy on Speaking Engagements, Publications, and Media Contact, which is available on the CSI Compressco Intranet.

Transacting International Business

The Partnership Group operates in many different countries and it is the Partnership Group's policy to abide by the national and local laws of the countries in which we operate, except to the extent prohibited by U.S. law.

In conducting the Partnership Group's affairs, you are expected to observe and comply with all applicable laws, including the laws of the U.S. that have application outside of U.S. territory.

You are further required to be familiar with the laws affecting your business activities and assume responsibility for compliance. The following are five subject areas that must be strictly observed in the conduct of international business transactions by or on behalf of the Partnership Group.

Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption Laws

COMPLY WITH ALL ANTI-BRIBERY AND ANTI-CORRUPTION LAWS OF THE COUNTRIES IN WHICH THE PARTNERSHIP GROUP DOES BUSINESS

THE BRIBERY OF PUBLIC OFFICIALS AND OTHERS IS STRICTLY PROHIBITED

BRIBERY

Anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws apply to the Partnership Group's operations around the globe. These laws include, but are not limited to, the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act ("FCPA") and the UK Bribery Act of 2010 ("UKBA"). Individuals who violate these laws may be subject to civil penalties and criminal liability, including fines and/or jail time. An individual may also subject the Partnership Group to significant fines and other penalties.

The Partnership Group strictly prohibits bribery in the conduct of its business in the U.S. and abroad. You must at all times conduct the Partnership Group's business ethically and carefully to minimize the risk of inadvertent breaches of applicable anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws and to avoid even the appearance of impropriety.

You shall not offer, promise, authorize the payment of, pay, or give anything of value (or do so through any third party) to any Government Official for the purpose of improperly influencing any act or decision of the Government Official in his or her official capacity or securing any other improper advantage in order to obtain or retain business. The term Government Official includes, but is not limited to, any (i) officer or employee of any government or public international organization or agency, department, or instrumentality thereof (including any officer or employee of a state-owned, -operated, or -controlled company); (ii) political party; (iii) official of a political party; (iv) candidate for political office; or (v) person acting on behalf of such government or public international organization, or any agency, department, or instrumentality thereof.

You also shall not offer, promise, authorize the payment of, or pay anything of value (or do so through any third party) to any private person or employee of any entity connected in any way with business potentially affecting the Partnership Group ("Covered Recipient") (i) in order to induce or reward the improper performance of any function or activity or (ii) while knowing or believing that acceptance itself constitutes the improper performance of a function or activity.

If you are confronted with a demand or request for a bribe from anyone, you must promptly report such demand or request to your supervisor and the Chief Compliance Officer.

For a complete description of the ethical standards of conduct, practices, and procedures that must be followed by all Partnership Group Personnel with respect to the activities regulated by the FCPA, UKBA, and other anti-bribery and recordkeeping laws, please see TETRA's Anti-Corruption Policy and Manual, which are available on the CSI Compressco Intranet. Among other things, TETRA's Anti-Corruption Manual provides specific, detailed guidance regarding the procedures that must be followed with regard to meals, gifts, entertainment, and travel and lodging involving Government Officials and Covered Recipients. You are required to understand, and comply with, the Anti-Corruption Policy and Manual and all applicable anti-corruption laws in all business dealings throughout the world. Non-compliance will result in discipline up to and including termination of employment.

FACILITATING PAYMENTS

Facilitating Payments (also known as “grease payments”) are low-value payments to a Government Official to expedite or secure the performance of a non-discretionary, routine governmental action that (i) the Governmental Official ordinarily performs, and (ii) the Company is entitled to under the laws of that country without any such Facilitating Payment. The FCPA contains a very narrow exception for small Facilitating Payments, however, these payments are illegal in most countries around the world. For example, the UKBA contains no exception for Facilitating Payments.

TETRA prohibits Facilitating Payments. It is prohibited for any member of Company Personnel to offer, promise, authorize, or pay a Facilitating Payment. If you are confronted with a request or demand for a Facilitating Payment from a Government Official, you must refuse such request or demand and promptly report it to your supervisor and the Chief Compliance Officer.

Anti-Boycott Laws

NEVER COMPLY WITH REQUESTS TO COOPERATE WITH UNLAWFUL BOYCOTTS

Certain U.S. federal laws and regulations, including the Export Administration Act and the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and their respective regulations, restrict the Partnership Group from participating in boycotts imposed by the laws of other countries, but in which the U.S. is not participating. These laws also prohibit compliance with requests for information or other actions that further certain boycotts. In addition, these laws require the Partnership Group to report the receipt of boycott-related requests, whether or not the Partnership Group complies with the requests. Violations can result in criminal penalties, loss of tax benefits, and loss of export privileges.

Neither the Partnership Group nor any member of Partnership Group Personnel shall take any action that will violate the laws or regulations dealing with participation in boycotts. Any action related to a boycott request that may require a report to a governmental agency, even if such action is not prohibited by law or applicable regulation and does not invoke any tax sanctions, must be cleared in advance with TETRA’s Legal Department.

Partnership Group Personnel who are involved in international transactions or who have questions relating to a proposed transaction that may be affected by the U.S. anti-boycott laws should seek assistance from an attorney in TETRA’s Legal Department.

For more information, see TETRA’s Anti-Boycott Laws Policy, which is available on the CSI Compressco Intranet.

Export Controls

COMPLY WITH EXPORT CONTROL AND IMPORT LAWS GOVERNING THE MOVEMENT OF GOODS, TECHNOLOGY, SOFTWARE, AND SERVICES ACROSS BORDERS

The Partnership Group will comply with all rules and regulations that regulate international trading activity, such as those regulating the export of goods, technologies, software, services, and/or information. An export can occur when a physical item is shipped to another country. It can also occur when technology or technical information is provided in any way, including verbally, to someone who is not a U.S. citizen who is located in either the U.S. or another country.

Partnership Group Personnel and any third-parties acting on the Partnership Group's behalf must observe the following requirements:

- All information furnished in connection with an export must be accurate and truthful, including information relative to the value of the export. This requirement applies whether the information is furnished to the government, co-worker, or third party that is engaged to facilitate the export on behalf of the Partnership Group.
- Ensure that a regulation or specific export license covers the export in question. This rule applies to exports of goods and services, as well as to exports of technology.
- Be alert to instances in which inaccurate information might have been furnished to the Partnership Group or to our agents relative to the ultimate destination for, or use of, the products.

U.S. export control laws and regulations are highly complex. Questions should be directed to an attorney in TETRA's Legal Department.

For more information, see TETRA's Export Controls Policy, which is available on the CSI Compressco Intranet.

U.S. Embargoes/Trade Sanctions

From time to time, the U.S. prohibits or restricts trade and other commercial dealings between U.S. citizens (which term includes U.S. persons, U.S. incorporated companies, resident aliens in the U.S., and, in some instances, foreign-based affiliates of U.S. companies) and certain countries, including residents and citizens of those countries. Violations of the restrictions and prohibitions can result in the imposition of substantial fines or imprisonment. Partnership Group Personnel must adhere to the letter and the spirit of these restrictions and prohibitions.

The countries and citizens or residents of those countries that are the target of these prohibitions change from time to time. Further, the regulatory controls on those countries vary both in scope and complexity. If you have questions related to any proposed transaction that may be affected by embargos or trade sanctions, seek assistance from an attorney in TETRA's Legal Department.

For more information, see TETRA's Trade Sanctions Policy, which is available on the CSI Compressco Intranet.

Money Laundering

Consistent with federal law and regulations, the Partnership Group prohibits activities which would enable money laundering. The Partnership Group's policy prohibits the receipt of cash or cash equivalents that are the proceeds of crime.

You must (i) exercise good judgment and common sense, (ii) assess the integrity and ethical business practices of customers and business partners, and (iii) promptly report suspicious transactions or activities by any customer to an attorney in TETRA's Legal Department.

In particular, you should be suspicious and report to the Legal Department in the following circumstances:

- when payments are made in currencies other than that specified in the invoice or by cash or cash equivalents;
- when payments are made by someone who is not a party to the contract;
- when payments originate from an account other than the normal business-relationship account;
- when a customer requests or attempts to make payments for a single invoice or a group of invoices by multiple checks or drafts; and
- when a customer requests to make an overpayment.

To avoid potential money laundering, you should always assess the integrity of potential customers, communicate with customers about the Partnership Group's compliance expectations of them, and monitor their business practices. Do not do business with any customer or other business partner suspected of wrongdoing relating to dealings with the Partnership Group, unless those suspicions are investigated and resolved or otherwise addressed by TETRA's Legal Department.

Consequences of Violating This Code

ETHICAL BUSINESS CONDUCT IS EVERYONE'S RESPONSIBILITY

We expect all Partnership Group Personnel to observe the letter and the spirit of this Code

Partnership Group Personnel who violate this Code, any Partnership Group policies and procedures, or the law; knowingly permit a subordinate to do so; or fail to report a violation of this Code by another person will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination, and may also be subjected to civil or criminal prosecution or claims for damages or losses.

The Audit Committee of the General Partner's Board of Directors shall have oversight of the administration of this Code and responsibility for the corporate compliance effort within the Partnership Group. The Chief Compliance Officer will monitor and periodically audit the Partnership Group's business conduct to ensure compliance with this Code. At least once a year, the Compliance Officer shall inform the Audit Committee about the Partnership Group's corporate compliance activities and of the occurrence of all significant events relating to this Code.

General Information

Reporting Concerns

DON'T TURN YOUR BACK ON UNETHICAL BEHAVIOR—REPORT IT

Any violation of this Code causes harm to the Partnership Group, to Partnership Group Personnel, and ultimately to the Partnership's unitholders. Violations may result in physical injuries; the impairment of corporate assets; monetary losses; violations of the law; penalties; and, in certain instances, irreparable injury to the Partnership Group and its reputation. You should be alert and sensitive to situations that could result in actions that may violate federal, state, or local laws or the standards set forth in this Code. If you believe that your own conduct or that of another person might have violated any such laws or this Code, you have an obligation to report the matter.

The decision to report a concern or problem is not always easy. Nonetheless, the Partnership Group follows an "open door" policy and encourages Partnership Group Personnel to discuss their concerns and seek assistance, irrespective of the nature of the problem or how insignificant the problem may appear. The Partnership Group wants to ensure that Partnership Group Personnel seeking advice will receive prompt guidance prior to engaging in conduct that may be in violation of this Code, Partnership Group policies, or the law.

We believe that problems are best and most quickly resolved by speaking directly with management. Generally, you should raise issues, concerns, and problems with an immediate supervisor. If you are not comfortable bringing the matter up with your immediate supervisor, or do not believe that the immediate supervisor has dealt with the matter properly, then you may use the procedures set forth in TETRA's Employee Rights and Responsibilities policy or the Partnership's Policy and Procedures for Receipt and Treatment of Complaints Related to Accounting and Compliance Matters ("Whistleblower Policy"), both of which are available on the CSI Compressco Intranet. If a law, rule, or regulation is in question, then consult with the Chief Compliance Officer or an attorney in TETRA's Legal Department.

We recognize, however, that not everyone will be comfortable addressing problems or violations in this manner. As such, we have established a number of other reporting methods for Partnership Group Personnel to use. You may report a concern, problem, or known or suspected violation of this Code; any Partnership Group policy; or any federal, state, or local laws by any of the following methods:

- You may make a report (anonymously or otherwise) by sending an email to:

compliance@tetrtec.com

- You may mail a written report (anonymously or otherwise) in an envelope marked "confidential" to the following mailing address:

TETRA Technologies, Inc.
Attn: Chief Compliance Officer
24955 Interstate 45 North
The Woodlands, TX 77380-3055
USA

- A reporting hotline has also been established through an independent, third-party company called The Network. You may make a report via the internet on the following website or by calling one of the following telephone numbers:

Report online:
reportlineweb.com/tetrtec

From within the U.S. and Canada:
1-800.839.0258 (toll free)

From all other countries:
770.582.5261 (collect, using an international telephone provider)

These telephone numbers are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. When you make a report online or by calling one of these telephone numbers, you may identify yourself or remain anonymous, if permitted under local law.

More information about the reporting hotline, including additional information about how to contact the reporting hotline from a location outside of the United States, is available on the Compressco Intranet.

Any person who knowingly reports false or misleading information may be subject to disciplinary action.

Duty to Cooperate

The Partnership Group carefully investigates reports of misconduct. If you are asked to participate in or cooperate with those efforts, you are required to do so.

Non-Retaliation Policy

The Partnership Group will not tolerate any reprisal or retaliation against a person who in good faith reports a known or suspected violation of this Code; any Partnership Group policy; or any federal, state, or local laws or participates in an investigation involving possible misconduct. If you believe that you have been retaliated against, you should promptly contact the Human Resources staff, the Chief Compliance Officer, or the reporting hotline.

Anyone who retaliates against another person for reporting any known or suspected violation of this Code; any Partnership Group policy; or any federal, state, or local laws or for participating in an investigation will, themselves, be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Confidentiality

The Partnership Group will make every effort to safeguard the confidentiality of statements and other information reported by Partnership Group Personnel. Subject only to legal requirements or court order, the Partnership Group will also endeavor, when requested, to maintain the anonymity of persons who in good faith report any known or suspected violation.

Resources for Asking Questions

IF EVER IN DOUBT, ASK

Questions regarding this Code or any Partnership Group or TETRA policy are best answered by the Chief Compliance Officer or an attorney in TETRA's Legal Department. If you so desire, we will respect your anonymity.

You can call the following contacts:

Chief Compliance Officer: 281.364.5341
General Counsel: 281.364.2241

Waivers

Any waiver of the requirements of this Code may be made only by the Audit Committee of the General Partner's Board of Directors. The Partnership Group will promptly disclose such waivers to the Partnership's unitholders, as may be required by law.

CSI COMPRESSCO LP
CODE OF BUSINESS CONDUCT ACKNOWLEDGMENT
STATEMENT

I, _____, acknowledge that I have received and read CSI Compressco LP's Code of Business Conduct (the "Code"). I understand and agree to comply with the practices, procedures, and ethical standards contained in the Code and all related policies and procedures. I understand that my compliance is a term and condition of my continued employment or association with CSI Compressco LP (the "Partnership" and, together with its subsidiaries and CSI Compressco GP Inc. (the "General Partner"), the "Partnership Group").

I will promptly report any known or suspected violation or potential violation of the Code, any Partnership Group policy or procedure, or the law of which I become aware according to the procedures set forth in the Code. I understand that a violation of the Code may subject me to disciplinary action, up to and including termination, as well as civil and criminal penalties.

I understand that the Code is only a statement of ethical standards, practices, and procedures for individual and business conduct and does not constitute an employment contract. I further understand that the Code does not, nor is it intended to, confer any rights or benefits of employment or constitute an assurance of continued employment or employment other than at-will.

I understand that the Partnership has a right to modify or amend the Code at any time.
